GRANDMOTHER — Mrs. John Koster, 39, right, holds her fifth child, a boy named Timothy, as she glances at her daughter, Mrs. Walter Lashutka and her new-born girl, Karen. Mrs. Koster became a mother again five hours after her first grandchild was born. As she was being wheeled into the delivery room of St. Francis Hospital in Morrisville, Pa., she saw her oldest daughter returning to her maternity room. It was then she learned she had become a grandmother. — NEA Telephoto
